

Description

A fantastic 11-day tour through beautiful Baltic countries – Estonia, Latvia, and Lithuania. Rich in history, culture, and stunning landscapes, this tour promises an unforgettable experience! With guaranteed departure, it's the perfect opportunity to explore Baltic capitals, vibrant cities, and local traditions.

Starting in Riga, discover the Art Nouveau district and the Medieval Old Town, where every corner tells a story. Continue to Tallinn, with a refreshing stop in the summer resort city of Parnu for some sea air. Discover Tallinn city with stunning historical landmarks and modern urban life – galleries, museums, and shops. The tour continues to Tartu, an Estonian university city known for its history and youthful energy.

Crossing to Latvia, enjoy several stops in towns like Aluksne, Stameriena, Cesavine, and Aglona for local experiences such as local beer tasting, ceramic workshops, and stunning discoveries of European Romanticism, picturesque Classicism, late Baroque-style buildings.

The journey continues in Lithuania, beginning in Aukstaitija National Park. Picturesque nature with many lakes, forests, and hills invites to spend a relaxing day on a light walk before reaching Vilnius. The capital of Lithuania with more than 1.200 Medieval buildings and 48 churches always fascinates travellers around the world. Explore the city through its historical buildings and narrow streets of the Old Town.

Each day is filled with extraordinary experiences to discover the best of Baltic countries and leave a lifelong impression. With local history, charming architecture, and the delightful flavours of traditions – The Baltic region is the one to fall in love.
