

Description

Get ready for a 14-day escorted tour through the Baltic countries! This tour combines history, nature, and culture, offering an unforgettable journey through stunning Estonia, Latvia, and Lithuania. With guaranteed departure tour explore the Medieval charm, modern flair, and cultural gems of the Baltic region along with breath-taking landscapes.

Start in Tallinn, the capital of Estonia, to explore its most famous highlights and top destinations before heading to Tartu, a vibrant university town known for its rich history, classical architecture, and youthful energy.

Cross into Latvia, with stops in several cities to experience the country fully. From European Romanticism and Baroque-style Basilica to picturesque classical estates, local beer bravery, ceramics workshop, and historical centres - Latvia has it all.

Next, arrive in Lithuania, where the natural landscape in Aukstaitija National Park with lakes, forests, and hills provides breath-taking views. Discover Vilnius through its panoramic views and narrow Old Town streets with historical buildings. Enjoy short tours of Kaunas and Klaipeda to admire their elegant Old Towns before travelling by ferry to reach the peaceful resort town of Nida on the Curonian Spit, a retreat surrounded by natural beauty.

The journey continues back through Latvia, discovering Liepaja, the magnificent Rundale Palace, and Riga, the capital of Latvia with architectural treasures of Art Nouveau district and Medieval Old Town.

Highlights include walking tours through historic old towns, visits to majestic castles, and beautiful national parks. Experience the art, traditions, and beautiful flavours of the region. With a perfect mix of guided tours and optional activities, the Baltic Adventure tour uncovers the rich history and stunning beauty of the Baltics.

You are free to choose a more relaxed mode of this program (basic tour) or book additional excursions, national dinners, experiences and enjoy more intensive tour program.
